

Cheryl Jackson
Board Member-at-Large

Cheryl Jackson became Board Member-at-Large with BCAP (Breast Cancer Assistance Program) in 2011. As an associate with Robinett & Murphy, her practice is primarily focused in the areas of commercial litigation, insurance defense and family law. She also sits on the Oklahoma Bar Association's Women in Law Committee.

Cheryl was born in Muskogee, Oklahoma and attended Northeastern State University for her undergraduate studies in Criminal Justice and later attended law school at the University of Tulsa College of Law. While in law school, she served as a senior staff member on the Energy Law Journal and president of the Women's Law Caucus. She also served as Treasurer of the Resources, Energy, and Environmental Law Society and was a member of the Phi Delta Phi honors fraternity. During law school, Cheryl was awarded the CALI Award for Excellence in Civil Procedure and was honored as the National Association of Women Lawyers Outstanding Law Student.

Cheryl is married to Jared Nelson and has three wonderful boys who keep her busy with baseball games, football games, and band concerts.
